

The Mary Baker Eddy Library™
200 Massachusetts Avenue
Boston, MA 02115

PLEASE
AFFIX
FIRST-CLASS
POSTAGE

NEW NOTES

a young musicians concert series
winter-spring 2005 schedule

"It is such a beautiful place. It really inspires us to sing."

—Performer, New Notes 2004

NEW NOTES

at
THE MARY BAKER EDDY LIBRARY

winter-spring 2005 schedule

THE POWER OF MUSIC

WITH THE EXUBERANCE OF YOUTH

IN THE HALL OF IDEAS

a young musicians concert series

Sunday, January 30, 3 pm
PALS Children's Chorus

Songs to lift the soul.

Friday, March 4, 7:30 pm
New England Music Heritage Initiative (a project of New England String Ensemble)

Winning pieces based on New England themes, from International competition.

Friday, March 11, 7:30 pm
Best of Boston Public Schools

Specially selected by audition. Solos and ensembles, classical and jazz.

Sunday, April 10, 3 pm
Milton Academy Jazz Combos

Featuring a diverse mix of South African, Brazilian, and Chick Corea.

Sunday, May 1, 3 pm
New England Conservatory of Music Preparatory School

Scholarship Brass Quintet and Friends play magical antiphonal music.

Sunday May 22, 3 pm
Handel and Haydn Society Youth and Youth Women's Chorus and Boston Children's Chorus

Old and new, from folk traditions to classical gems.

Where: The Hall of Ideas at
The Mary Baker Eddy Library
200 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston

Treat yourself and the children in your life to the wonderful world of live music performed by New England's best young musicians.

Concert tickets: Free with a suggested donation of $5
Reservations and info:
617-450-7220
www.marybakereddylibrary.org

Arrive early and enjoy lunch or dinner at the Library's signature café, "Quotes", or visit the Library's exhibits, including the world-famous Mapparium® globe.

"The music can just fly through the air here."
—Conductor,
New Notes
2004

THE MARY BAKER EDDY LIBRARY
for the BETTERMENT of HUMANITY®

winter-spring 2005
schedule